

ENCHANCING INTRA-ASEAN STUDENT MOBILITY

The Master Plan on ASEAN Connectivity (MPAC) 2025 supports higher education exchange across ASEAN Member States and aims to enhance student mobility by addressing four gaps: information, awareness, regulatory, and incentives.

Greater intra-ASEAN student mobility could bring the following benefits:

We need greater collaboration among ASEAN Member States and with stakeholders such as governments, education institutions, and students towards enhancing greater intra-ASEAN mobility.
